

The Great Fifty Days

Today is THE day in the year for Christians, when we celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus and OUR resurrection with him, who have died with him in Baptism.

But Easter is so much more than one day. We have FIFTY days to meditate on and celebrate the mystery of the Resurrection.

This week – the Easter Octave – is a wonderful opportunity to begin to do that, when each of the days is almost like a re-run of today. A week of Easter Sundays. Try to make this a holy week too.
